LIFE AHEAD METHODOLOGY

Personal growth is assured through the philosophical foundations, and the school's Life Ahead Methodology. The Life Ahead Methodology promotes autonomy, organization, responsibility, and social skills. Its major goal is to produce self-reliant individuals who will assume an ever-greater responsibility for their own learning.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for the student interested in dramatic activities with an emphasis on performance. Areas covered in depth include vocabulary, roles in the theatre, movement, acting (scene work and one act plays), and theatre history. Students will be involved every day in some performance-based activity. There is an emphasis on memorization and working as a team. Students will be creating projects throughout the year in groups just as they would encounter in the professional theatre world.

Play Performances: The best way to learn about theatre is to experience it. Students are expected to see at least one production over the course of each semester and write a review of the show.

VIDEO/PHOTOGRAPHY: In this course, we often video record students' performances.

OBJECTIVES

- Develop students' understanding of the human condition to convey personal, social, and cultural meanings through drama.
- Develop students' appreciation of the value of, and enjoyment of drama.
